We offer a wide range of activities both indoors and outdoors. There will be lots of chances for the children to do free play as well as the planned activities.

Some of the other suggested activities that we will be doing are Arts & Crafts, Baking & Team games.

If there is anything your child would like to do on the day they come, please just ask the staff. The emphasis is on the children's choice and FUN!!

To book a place for your child, please complete a booking form and return it to North Kessock OSC or the Dingwall Office along with your payment by Friday 17th June.

Invoices are to be paid two weeks in advance and are non-returnable

If your child has not been before please come and visit us at North Kessock club to see the place and get a registration form.
